

Submitting an Award Winning Nomination

When submitting a nomination, complete the form below and include a one-page summary of the individual's volunteer experience and contribution to the wellbeing of Fond du Lac County (refer to Nomination Summary/Conclusion below)

The nomination deadline for Cheers for Volunteers 2008 is March 7, 2008.

Nomination Summary

- Why are you nominating this person/group/business?
- Where does this person volunteer? If they volunteer with more than one organization, please include a statement from those agencies to show the extent of the volunteer efforts.
- Explain how this person meets the award category for which they are being nominated.

Conclusion

- Highlight the ways the nominee has impacted the community and why you believe this person/group/business should win an award.

Additional notes:

- Persons can be nominated in more than one category if their volunteer efforts meet the criteria for more than one award. A separate nomination form and summary should be completed for each award category. Nominees may not win more than one award.
- A selection committee from each award category will review all nominations.
- Awards are open to all individuals/groups/businesses. No age limit.
